“Do solemnly promise and swear that I will serve as Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council Cryptic Masons of the State of New York, for the term for which I have been elected, and will, to the best of my abilities, faithfully discharge the duties appertaining to that Office. I do furthermore promise and swear that I will support and maintain the Constitution of the Grand Council Cryptic Masons of the State of New York, together with the General Regulations of the same; and inviolably preserve the Ancient Landmarks of the Order. So help me God and keep me steadfast to perform the same.”

You may rise. I now invest you with the jewel and insignia of your Office.

As the representative of the wise King of Israel, it will be your duty to recite the secret traditions, to illustrate the moral principles of the Order, to cherish the worthy, and to hold in due veneration the Ancient Landmarks of our time-honored Institution.

The purple Robe, the Crown, and the Scepter are emblems of union and authority. They are to indicate to you that, while you govern your Companions with mildness, firmness, and impartiality, you are to teach them lessons of union and harmony, which are the chief supports in our great Masonic edifice. And as you are seated in the East, the place of Light and Heat, so you are to be the source of Light and Heat to those under your charge. CHARGE TO THE MEMBERS

Companions: From the nature of the Constitution of every society, some must of necessity rule and others obey. And while justice and moderation are required of the Officers in the discharge of their official duties, subordination and respect for their rules are equally demanded of the members. The relation is reciprocal; the interests of both are inseparable, and without mutual cooperation, the labors of neither cannot stand.

Let, therefore, Brotherly love prevail among you; let each be emulous of the other in all good works, and in no other way. Let the avenues of your passions be strictly guarded; let no curious intruder find its way into the secret recesses of your refinement, to disturb the harmony which should ever prevail among the select and chosen. In so doing, you will secure the prosperity of this Grand Council, the respect of your Companions, the commendation of your own consciences, and finally, the approval of your Supreme Grand Master and a Crown of Life.
